

I-ACT! Presents Fall 2019 Workshops

Register at <https://idahoact.org>

Saturday, October 12, 12-2p Elks Lodge

You say Potato, I say...Dialects! with Melissa Marilyn Hadden

Focus will be on reading basic transcription to produce and practice British and East Coast dialects

Saturday, November 16, 12-3p Elks Lodge

Applied Viewpoints for Directors with Dwayne Blackaller

Due to popular demand, this Applied Viewpoints for Directors workshop will be open to anyone (actors, directors) -even if you were unable to attend Part I. Returning Part I participants will apply Viewpoints as they direct their actors in a short (max. 5 min.) scene of their choice.

Saturday, December 7, 12-2p Xanadu

Getting the Part- Successful Musical/Non Musical Auditions with Jonathan Perry (Director), Barb Oldenburg (Musical Director), Kerith Telestai (Choreographer)

A highly qualified panel will share inside tips for any successful audition and provide opportunities to practice in each area.

Fees (All proceeds go to I-ACT, a 501c3 non-profit arts organization)

$25 I-ACT members/$30 non-members

“SEASON PASS” (All three!): Member $50; Non-member $70
(includes bonus I-ACT membership!)